Governor Z tick is up to his old tricks again. He is now in New Jersey telling the people there that it is through his efforts the Apaches have been removed from this Territory. Everyone knows that we owe this to General Miles, and to him alone.

Governor Zulick's efforts to capture some chesp glory by making eastern people believe that he is the man who has stopped the Indian troubles in this Territory will not redound much to his credit here, where he is so well known, and we all know that General Miles has done that which Zulick is talking about.
